Golf at Ballyneal

Designed by the world renowned golf course architect, Tom Doak, Ballyneal opened in 2006 to worldwide acclaim. Located in the Northeast Colorado town of Holyoke, Ballyneal is set in the Colorado chop hills and plays like a Scottish links course in between the hills. Limited to 250 members worldwide, Ballyneal is all about the love of the game of golf. It is a walking only course and encourages use of caddies. The course features wide driving corridors-but beware-Tom Doak's green complexes have dramatic slopes and bunkers that require you to approach the green from the correct side of the fairway if you're expecting to get the ball close to the hole. Ballyneal is fun, strategic, and fair. It is ranked as the 54th best course in the U.S. by Golf Digest, 41st in the country by Golf Magazine, and is ranked as the 4th best modern course (built after 1960) by Golfweek magazine. Package includes Two Days, Two Night, and as much Golf as you can play for three (3) people. You'll be hosted by Colorado PGA Reach Foundation Trustee Bill Vogeney
